GIFTS OF SECURITIES

GIFTS OF SECURITIES

A gi of appreciated stocks, bonds, or mutual funds that have been held more than one year is a popular alternative to contributing cash. rough a gi of securities, you may avoid capital gains taxes on the appreciation and receive an income tax charitable deduction. Some high-income taxpayers may also avoid the surtax on net investment income.

WHY SHOULD I CONSIDER A GIFT OF SECURITIES?

If your securities have appreciated in value, you have the opportunity to avoid capital gains tax that would be applied to the appreciation when the securities are sold. You may also earn an income tax charitable deduction for the full market value of the securities. With the tax savings, the "cost" of your gi to Moravian University may be much less than the actual value of the gi made—and preferable to a gi of cash. In a sense, the IRS pays for a portion of your gi !

WHAT IF I WANT TO CONTINUE INVESTING IN THE SECURITY?

You can give the security and then purchase additional shares with the cash you were considering giving to Moravian

GIFT PLANNING TIP

Other than cash, securities (e.g., stock shares, mutual fund shares, bonds) are the most popular asset for funding charitable gi s to Moravian University.

Publicly traded securities are usually very marketable, have a clear value, and are easily transferred. Tax laws heavily favor gi s of assets that have increased in value.
